

WE WANT TO VISIT OUR HUSBANDS IN U.S. PRISONS!

Olga Salanueva

Adriana Pérez

It's been almost 10 years since they last embraced.

Just recently, more than 100 personalities from 27 countries formed the International Commission for the Right of Family Visits. They have sent a letter to Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice asking her to grant humanitarian visas for these two Cuban women. Please join in this campaign by completing the back of this card (including your signature and return address), stamp and mail it to Condoleezza Rice.

Dear Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice:

I respectfully request you immediately grant humanitarian visas to two Cuban citizens, Olga Salanueva and Adriana Pérez, wives of federal prisoners René González and Gerardo Hernández respectively, who, without any legal reasons, have been prevented from visiting their imprisoned husbands for almost 10 years.

I am aware that these two women have applied for visas at least 8 times. On each occasion, the State Department has denied their request based on different arguments, without showing any legal basis to justify the arbitrariness of such a decision. To deny two prisoners their right to be visited by their wives has become, with the passing of time, another cruel and unusual form of punishment.

I ask that you please put an end to this situation and grant Olga Salanueva and Adriana Pérez humanitarian visas to visit their incarcerated husbands.

Sincerely,
